   Publish information as required by Circular 96/2020/TT-BTC related to financial statements, specifically as follows:
   a) The Q2/2026 Financial Statements of VKC Holdings Joint Stock Company, prepared on July 29, 2026, include: Steering Committee for Economic Management, Securities and Exchange Commission, Financial Statements and Financial Regulations.
   b) Disclosing explanations of the reasons for the business performance discrepancies in the Q2/2026 financial statements compared to the Q2/2025 financial statements, resulting in a difference of 10% or more, and the losses in Q2/2026

Explain the main reasons why the business results in the July quarter of 2026 differed by 10% or more from the July quarter of 2025, and the losses in the July quarter of 2026
(Unit: billion VND)

Indicator	QII/2026	QII/2025	Difference Increase/(Decrease)	% Increase/(Decrease)
Profit/(Loss) after tax (TNDN)	(12,210) billion	(13,710) billion	1,499 billion	10.94%

- The reason for the 10% difference (increased loss) is:

The reduction in losses compared to Quy II/2025 in Q2/2026 is due to: In Q2/2026, financing expenses decreased by 11.75% compared to QII/2025 because in QII/2026, the two subsidiaries had revenue, so the provision for provisions decreased compared to Q2/2025, respectively: 1ty352 is shown in Note VI.5

This resulted in a 10.94% reduction in losses in QII/2026 compared to QII/2025

- The reason for the loss in the second quarter is that:

In the second quarter of 2026, the Company recorded no transactions involving the purchase or sale of goods, and inventory was no longer reported (as indicated in Note V.07 on page 11), resulting in no sales revenue. Revenue was generated solely from the collection of electricity and water payments on behalf of others; consequently, total revenue declined by 69.81% compared to the second quarter of 2025.

On the other hand, the total accrued expenses—comprising accrued interest on overdue bank loans, overdue interest payable on a bond issue, and provisions for investments in two subsidiaries amounted to VND 10.94 billion, resulting in a loss for the quarter.
