3. Supervisory activities of the BOD over the Executive Board (EB) in 2024:

The BOD regularly supervised the implementation of the business production plan and required the EB to report on the results of implementation on a quarterly basis. The BOD held regular meetings once every quarter and invited the EB members to attend, report on the progress of the plan, and propose solutions to improve business performance.

Additionally, every month, the EB held meetings with the managers (heads) of the functional departments to assess the progress of the business production plan, address any outstanding issues or challenges the departments were facing, and provided written reports to the BOD on the completion of key tasks for the month, along with plans for the next month's key tasks. This ensured that the BOD's management and supervision of the EB are more thorough.

The BOD consistently urged the EB to comply with reporting and information disclosure requirements in accordance with current legal regulations.

In addition to holding meetings in person or online, the BOD also regularly supervised the activities of the EB through phone calls, text messages, etc., to promptly provide guidance on resolving arising issues.

4. Activities of the subcommittees of the BOD in 2024:

The BOD established only one subcommittee, the Internal Audit Department (IAD). In addition, to assist in the work of the BOD and the IAD, there is also the Secretary of the BOD, who also serves as the Company Administrator.

The members of the IAD have been implementing the tasks outlined in the 2024 internal audit plan, approved by the BOD.

VI. Corporate Governance Training

In 2024, the members of the BOD, SB, EB, corporate governance officer, authorized representatives responsible for information disclosure and the Secretary of BOD of the company placed significant emphasis on corporate governance and actively participated in training sessions. These sessions focused on legal knowledge regarding corporate governance and public company information disclosure, organized by the State Securities Commission, the Stock Exchange, and the Vietnam Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation. The company's managing board developed an annual plan and program of work, with specific tasks and goals outlined for each quarter and month. This structure facilitated efficient management, leadership, and operation of the company.

Every month, the EB reported to the BOD and the SB on the performance of key indicators and tasks, as well as the focus for the upcoming month. This helped ensure smooth coordination for the BOD and the SB in monitoring, directing, and supervising the EB's activities, and overseeing the implementation of the company's production and business plan.

Additionally, the BOD and the EB assigned members of the BOD, SB, Internal Audit Department (IAD), Secretary of BOD, corporate governance officers, and authorized representatives responsible for information disclosure to participate in advanced training sessions on organizing the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders (AGMS), hosted by the University of Law in Ho Chi Minh City. They also fully participated in training sessions, shared experiences, and received guidance on corporate governance and information disclosure in the securities market, organized by the consulting firm responsible for legal advisory on corporate information disclosure (FPT Securities Joint Stock Company).
