1	Total accounting profits before tax	247,730,756,206	136,189,674,010	111,541,082,196	82%
1.1	Profit from business operations	245,009,833,103	132,261,862,571	112,747,970,532	85%
1.1.1	- Profit from production and business	133,910,276,006	112,832,735,450	21,077,540,556	19%
1.1.2	- Profit from financial activities	111,099,557,097	19,429,127,121	91,670,429,976	472%
1.2	Other profits	2,720,923,103	3,927,811,439	(1,206,888,336)	(31%)
2	Current corporate income tax expenses	31,582,898,387	27,723,829,562	3,859,068,825	14%
3	Profit after corporate income tax	215,700,066,206	108,465,844,448	107,234,221,758	99%

Total accounting profit before tax for 2st quarter of year 2026 reached 247.7 billion VND, increase of 111.5 billion VND, equivalent to increase of 82% compared to the same period last year.

Total operating profit for 2st quarter of year 2026 reached 245.01 billion VND, an increase of 112.7 billion VND, equivalent to a 85% increase compared to the same period last year.

Specific reasons are as follows:

- Profit from production and business operations for 2st quarter of year 2026 reached 133,9 billion VND, increase of 21.1 billion VND, equivalent to increase of 19% compared to the same period last year mainly due to the company effectively controlling costs, the company contributes to improved operational efficiency, continuously enhances the quality of goods and services to elevate the customer experience, and implements various sales programs designed to encourage the use of its products and services.
- Profit from financial operations for 2st quarter of year 2026 reached 111.1 billion VND, increase of 91.7 billion VND, equivalent to increase 472% compared to the same period last year, mainly due to increase in dividends received from external equity investments
- Other profits for 2st quarter of year 2026 reached 2.7 billion VND, decrease of 1.2 billion VND, equivalent to decrease 31% compared to the same period last year, mainly due to reduce sales support and promotional expenses.

As a result, after-tax corporate income tax (CIT) profit in the Company's consolidated financial statements for 2st quarter of year 2026 reached 215.7 billion VND increased by 99% compared to the same period last year.

The company respectfully reports this to competent authorities and shareholders.

Respectfully yours,

Recipients:

- As above;
- Department of Finance and Accounting, anhntv.

CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENT

2. Transactions in foreign currency

Transactions incurred in foreign currency are converted at the rate on the transaction date. Balances of monetary items denominated in foreign currencies at the end of the accounting period are converted at the exchange rate on that date.

The exchange rate differences arising during the accounting period from foreign currency transactions are recognized in financial income or financial expenses. The difference of exchange rate due to revaluation of monetary items denominated in foreign currencies as of the ending date of accounting period after offsetting the difference of increase and decrease will be recognized into turnover of financial or non-financial activities.

The rate used to convert foreign currency transactions is the actual transaction rate at the time of the transaction. The actual trading rate for foreign currency transactions is determined as follows:

- For accounts receivable and accounts payable: the average buying and selling exchange rate of the Vietnam Foreign Trade Joint Stock Commercial Bank – Ho Chi Minh City Branch at the time the transaction occurs.
- For asset purchases or expenses paid immediately in foreign currency (not through accounts payable): the average buying and selling exchange rate of the commercial bank where the Company makes the payment.

The exchange rate used to re-evaluate the balance of foreign currency monetary items at the end of the accounting period is determined according to the following principles:

- For foreign currency deposits in banks: the average buying and selling exchange rate of the bank where the Company maintains its foreign currency account.
- For monetary items denominated in foreign currency classified as other assets or liabilities: the average buying and selling exchange rate of the Vietnam Foreign Trade Joint Stock Commercial Bank – Ho Chi Minh City Branch (the bank the Company regularly transacts with)

3. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash includes cash on hand and demand deposits with banks. Cash equivalents are short-term investments with a recovery period of no more than 3 months from the investment date, with ability to convert easily into a defined amount and there is no risk of converting to currency at the time of statement.

4. Amount of financial investment

Trading securities

An investment is classified as trading securities when held for the purpose of buying and selling for profit.

Trading securities are recorded in the accounting books at original price. The original price of trading securities is determined based on the fair value of payments at the time of transaction, plus any costs related to the purchase of the trading securities.

The time to recognize trading securities is a time when the Company has ownership, specifically as follows:

- For listed securities: It is recognized at the time of trade settlement (T+0).
- For unlisted securities: It is recognized at the time when the legal ownership rights are officially acquired in accordance with the law.

Interest, dividends, and profits from periods before the trading securities are purchased are accounted for as a reduction in the value of the securities themselves. Dividends and profits of the period after the trading securities are purchased recognized as revenue. Stock dividends are only allowed to follow the number of increase stocks, not recognize the value of received stocks.

Exchange shares are determined at their fair value on the exchange date. The fair value of the exchange shares is determined based on the market price at the time of exchange or the agreed price.

Provisions for impairment of trading securities are established for each type of security traded on the market and have a fair value lower than the original cost. The fair value of trading securities listed on the stock market is the closing price on the last day of the accounting period. If the stock market is not traded on the last day of the accounting period, the fair value of the securities is the closing price of the trading session immediately preceding the last day of the accounting period.

The increase or decrease in the provision for impairment of trading securities that needs to be set up at the end of the accounting period is recorded as a financial expense.

Gains or losses from the transfer of trading securities are recorded as financial income or financial expenses.

Held-to-maturity investment

Investments are classified as being held to maturity when the Company intends and has ability to hold them until the date of maturity. Held-to-maturity investments include: Term bank deposits (including promissory notes, certificates of deposit), bonds, preferred stocks issued with a mandatory buyback at a specific future date, and loans held until maturity with the purpose of earning periodic interest, as well as other investments held until maturity.

Investments held to maturity are initially recognized at original price, which includes the purchase price and any costs related to transactions to purchase the investments. After initial recognition, these investments are recognized at their recoverable amount. Interest income from investments held to maturity, after the purchase date, is recognized in the Income Statement on an accrual basis. Interest received before being held by the Company is deducted from the original price at the time of purchase.

When there is conclusive evidence that part or all of an investment may not be recoverable, and the loss can be reliably determined, the loss is recognized as a financial expense for the year and directly reduces the value of the investment.

Investment in joint ventures, associates

Joint ventures

A joint venture is a company established based on an agreement in a contract, whereby the company and other participating parties carry out economic activities based on joint control. Joint control is understood as the requirement that strategic decisions regarding the operational and financial policies of the joint venture must be made with the consent of all joint venture participants.

Associates

An associate is a business in which the company has significant influence but does not have control over the financial and operational policies. Significant influence is reflected in the right to participate in making decisions regarding the financial and operational policies of the investment receiving enterprises but not control these policies.

Initial recognition

Investments in joint ventures and associates are initially recognized at original price, which includes the purchase price or capital contribution, plus any directly related transaction costs. In the case of investments made with non-monetary assets, the cost of the investment is recognized at the fair value of the non-monetary asset at the time of occurrence.

Dividends and profits of previous periods when the purchased investments are entered into accounts to reduce the value of those investment themselves. Dividends and profits of the period after the purchased investments are recognized as revenue. Stock dividends are only allowed to follow the number of increase stocks, not recognize the value of received stocks.

Provision for impairment of investments in joint venture company and associate company.

Provision for losses on investments in joint ventures and associates is made when joint ventures and associates suffer losses, with the provision equal to the difference between the actual capital contributions of the parties in joint ventures and associates and actual equity multiplied by the Company's capital contribution ratio compared to the total actual capital contributions of the parties in joint ventures and associates. If the joint venture or associate is subject to preparing consolidated financial statements, the basis for determining the provision for impairment is the consolidated financial statements.

Increase or decrease in the provision for impairment of investments in joint ventures and associates that needs to be set up at the end of the accounting period is recorded as a financial expense.

Investments in equity instruments of other entities

Investments in capital instruments of another entity include investments which the Company has no right to control, jointly control or have remarkable influence on the invested entities. An investment in a BCC contract where the business does not have joint control but benefits from the after-tax profits of the BCC contract.

Investments in capital instruments of another entity are initially recognized according to original price, including purchase price or capital contribution plus costs directly investment activities. Dividends and profits of previous periods when the purchased investments are entered into accounts to reduce the value of those investment themselves. Dividends and profits of the period after the purchased investments are recognized as revenue. Stock dividends are only allowed to follow the number of increase stocks, not recognize the value of received stocks.

Provisions for impairment of investments in equity instruments of other entities are made as follows:

- For investments in listed shares or those with reliably determinable fair values, the provision is based on the market value of the shares.
- For investments whose fair value cannot be determined at the date of statement, the provision is made based on the losses of the investee. The provision amount is calculated as the difference between the actual capital contributions of the parties to the other entity and the actual equity, multiplied by the company's ownership percentage relative to the total actual capital contributions of all parties to the other entity.

Increase or decrease in the provision for impairment of investments in equity instruments of other entities that needs to be set up at the end of the accounting period is recorded as a financial expense.

5. Other receivables

Receivable debts are presented according to book value subtracting the provisions for doubt debts.

The classification of receivables as receivables from customers and other receivables is done according to the following principles:

Receivables from customers reflect trade receivables arising from purchase-sale between the company and buyers that are independent entities.

- Other receivables reflect non-commercial receivables, which are not related to purchase-sale transactions.

The provisions for bad debts must be prepared for each item of bad debts on the basis of overdue period of debts or anticipation of possible losses, specifically as follows:

- For overdue receivables:
 - 30% of the value for overdue receivables is between 6 months and less than 1 years.
 - 50% of value for overdue receivables from year to less than 2 years.
 - 70% of value for overdue receivables from 2 years to less than 3 years.
 - 100% of value for overdue receivables from over 3 years.
- For receivables that are not yet overdue but are unlikely to be recoverable: The provision is made based on the estimated level of loss.

Increase, decrease of the balance of provisions for bad debts must be deducted at the ending date of accounting period which is recognized into corporate management costs.

6. Inventories

Inventories are recorded at lower prices between original price and net realizable value.

Original price of inventories is determined as follows:

- Materials, goods: Including purchase costs, other directly related costs to have inventories at the present place and status.
- Products: This includes direct materials, direct labor, and related manufacturing overhead costs, which are allocated based on the level of normal activity.

Price of goods out of warehouse sold in duty-free shops and shopping centers is calculated using the specific identification method, while the remaining inventory is valued using the weighted average method and is recorded using the periodic inventory system.

The net realizable value is the estimated selling price of inventory in the course of normal production, business minus the estimated costs to complete and only the estimated cost needed for their consumption.

Provision for devaluation of inventories is prepared for each item of inventories with original price of greater than its realizable net value. For unfinished services, the provision for impairment is calculated for each type of service with a specific price. The increase or decrease in the provision for impairment of trading securities that needs to be set up at the end of the accounting period is recorded as a financial expense.

7. Pending expenses

Pending expenses include actual costs that have been incurred but are related to the business activities of multiple accounting periods. The company's pending costs mainly consists of tools and equipment, periodic maintenance fixed asset repair costs, and prepaid land lease payments. These pending expenses are allocated during the prepaid period or the time the corresponding economic benefits are generated from these costs.

Tools, instruments

Tools and equipment that have been put into use are allocated to expenses using the straight-line method, with the allocation period not exceeding 2 years.

Means of transport, transmission	07
Management equipment, tools	05
Other tangible fixed assets	05

10. Financial leasing fixed assets

Asset leases are classified as operating leases if substantially all the risks and rewards associated with ownership of the asset remain with the lessor. Leased fixed assets are stated at original cost less accumulated depreciation. The original cost of a finance leased fixed asset is the lower of the fair value of the leased asset at the commencement of lease contract and the present value of the minimum lease payments. The discount rate used to calculate the present value of the minimum lease payments for leased assets is the implicit interest rate in the lease agreement or the interest rate stated in the contract. If the implicit interest rate in the lease agreement cannot be determined, the borrowing rate at the commencement of the lease is used to calculate the present value of the minimum lease payments.

Fixed assets are depreciated by straight-line method based on the estimated useful life. If it is uncertain whether the company will acquire ownership of the asset at the end of the lease term, the fixed asset will be depreciated over the shorter of the lease term and the estimated useful life of the asset.

11. Intangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets are presented at original price less accumulated depreciation.

Original price of fixed asset cover all the costs the Company must spend in order to obtain fixed assets up to the time it is put into ready-to-use status. Costs related to intangible fixed assets incurred after initial recognition are recognized as production and business expenses for the period, unless these costs are directly associated with a specific intangible asset and enhance the economic benefits derived from these assets.

When an intangible fixed asset is sold or disposed of, its cost and accumulated depreciation are written off, and any gain or loss arising from the disposal is recognized in income or expense for the period.

The Company's intangible fixed assets include:

Land using right

Land use rights refer to all actual costs incurred by the company that are directly related to the use of land, including: The costs incurred to acquire land use rights include expenses for obtaining land use rights, compensation, site clearance, land leveling, registration fees, etc. Land rights are depreciated by straight-line methods from 34 to 50 years.

Goods brand

Goods brand are depreciated by straight-line method over a period of 4 years.

Computer software program

Costs related to computer software programs that are not an integral part of the associated hardware are not capitalized. The original price of computer software is the total amount spent by the company up until the software is ready for use. Computer software is depreciated by straight-line method over a period of 5 years.

benefits in the future than initially assessed, in which case they are recorded as an increase in original cost.

When investment real estate is sold, the cost and accumulated depreciation are written off, and any resulting gain or loss is recognized in the income or expense for the period.

The transfer from owner-occupied real estate or inventory to investment real estate occurs only when the owner discontinues the use of that asset and begins leasing it to another party, or when the construction phase is completed. The transfer from investment real estate to owner-occupied real estate or inventory occurs only when the owner begins using the asset or starts preparing it for sale. The transfer from investment property to owner-occupied real estate or inventory does not affect the cost or the carrying value of the real estate at the date of transfer.

From January 1, 2015, investment real estate held for appreciation are not subject to depreciation. If there is clear evidence that investment real estate held for appreciation has decreased in value compared to its market value, and the impairment loss can be reliably determined, the investment real estate is written down to its recoverable amount, and the loss is recognized in the cost of goods sold.

13. Cost of capital construction in progress

Cost of capital construction in progress reflects the costs which are directly related to (including related loan interest cost which is suitable with the company accounting policy) assets in the progress of construction, machinery and equipment installed to serve the purpose of production, leasing and management as well as costs in connection with the repair of on-going fixed assets. These assets are recognized according to original price and not calculated depreciation.

14. Business cooperation contract

14.1 Jointly controlled business activities - Autogrill Joint Venture

The company recognizes in the consolidated financial statements business cooperation contracts under the form of jointly controlled business activities of the following contents:

- The value of the assets currently owned by the company.

to shareholders and capital contributors of the company. The time of recording the dividend and profit payable is the time when the enterprise no longer has the right to refuse the obligation to pay dividends and profits to shareholders and capital contributors of the company according to relevant laws.

- Payable expenses reflect amounts payable for goods and services received from vendors or provided to buyers but not yet paid due to the absence of invoices or incomplete accounting documents. It also includes amounts payable to employees for wages, leave, and provisions for production and business expenses.
- Other payables reflect non-commercial payables, which are not related to transaction of purchase, selling, supply of goods and services.

Liabilities and payable expenses are classified as current and non-current liabilities on the consolidated balance sheet based on the remaining term as of the end of the reporting period.

16. Equity Contributed capital

Equity is recognized according to the actual contributed capital of the shareholders.

17. Profit distribution

Profits after corporate income tax are distributed to shareholders after deducting for funds according to the Company's regulations as well as the law which approved by the General Shareholder's Meeting.

Profit distribution to the shareholders must take consideration of non-monetary items included in undistributed after-tax profits which can influence on cash flow and dividend payment ability such as interest due to revaluation of capital contribution assets, interest due to revaluation of monetary items, financial instruments and other non-monetary items.

Dividends are recognized as liabilities when a decision or announcement to pay dividends is made.

18. Recognition of revenue and income

Revenue from the sale of goods and products.

Revenue from the sale of goods and products is recognized when the following conditions are met simultaneously:

- The company has transferred most of the risks and benefits associated with the ownership of goods and products to the buyer.
- The Company no longer holds the rights to manage the goods, products as the owner of the goods or right of control to the goods;
- Revenue is determined with relatively certain. When the contract stipulates that the buyer has the right to return the purchased goods or products under specific conditions, revenue is only recognized when those specific conditions no longer exist, and the buyer no longer has the right to return the goods or products (except in cases where the customer has the right to return the goods or products for exchange with other goods or services).
- The company has received or will receive economic benefits from the sales transaction.
- Cost related to sales transaction is determined.

Revenues of service supply

Revenue from providing services is recognized when the following conditions are met simultaneously:

- Revenue is determined with relatively certain. When the contract stipulates that the buyer has the right to return the purchased service under specific conditions, revenue is only recognized when those specific conditions no longer exist, and the buyer no longer has the right to return the provided service.
 - The company has received or will receive economic benefits from that service supply.
 - The portion of work completed at the statement date can be determined.
 - The costs incurred for the transaction and the costs to complete the service supply can be determined.
- In cases where the service is performed over multiple periods, revenue is recognized in the period based on the results of the work completed as of the end of the statement period.

Revenue from goods received for consignment or agency sales.

Revenue from goods sold by agents or consignees under the method of selling at the correct price with commission is the sales commission that the Company receives.

Revenue from leasing operating assets.

Revenue from leasing operating assets is recorded by straight line method during the lease term. Rent received in advance for multiple periods is allocated to revenue in accordance with the lease term.

Interest

Interest is recognized based on the time and the effective interest rate for each period.

Distributed dividends and profits.

Distributed dividends and profits are recognized when the company is entitled to receive dividends or profits from its investments. Stock dividends are only allowed to follow the number of increase stocks, not recognize the value of received stocks.

19. Revenue deductions

Revenue deductions only include returned goods arising in the same period of consumption of products, goods and services that are adjusted to reduce revenue of the arising period.

In cases where products, goods, or services were sold in previous years and returns occur in the current year, the revenue reduction is recognized according to the following principle:

- If the return occurs before the issuance of the consolidated financial statements: Write down revenue reduction on this year's consolidated financial statement.
- If the return occurs after the issuance of the consolidated financial statements: Write down sales on the next year's consolidated financial statement.

20. Loan expenses

Borrowing costs include interest and other costs incurred directly in connection with the loans.

Borrowing costs are recognized as cost when incurred. In cases where borrowing costs are directly related to the investment in the construction or production of assets under construction that require a sufficient period (longer than 12 months) to be ready for use for their intended purpose or for sale, these borrowing costs are calculated as part of the value of the asset. For loans specifically used for the construction of fixed assets or investment properties, interest is calculated even if the construction period is less than 12 months. Income arising from the temporary investment of loan amounts is deducted from the original cost of the related asset.

For general loans that are used for the purpose of investing in the construction or production of assets under construction, the capitalized borrowing costs are determined based on the capitalization rate applied to the weighted average accumulated costs incurred for the basic construction or production of that asset. The capitalization rate is calculated according to the weighted average rate of unpaid loans during the period, except for separate loans that serve the purpose of forming a particular asset.

21. Costs

Costs are the items that reduce economic benefits recognized at the time of transaction or it is probably sure to be arisen in the future whether payment is made or not.

Costs and turnover generated from those costs must be recognized in accordance with matching principle. In case the matching principle has conflict with conservatism principle, costs are recognized on the basis of nature and stipulations of accounting standards to reflect transactions honestly, properly.

22. Corporate income tax

CIT expenses include current and deferred income taxes.

Current income tax

Current income tax is calculated on the basis of the taxable income. Taxable income is different from accounting profit due to adjustments of temporary difference between tax and accounting, non-deducted costs as well as adjustment of income and cost which are not subject to tax or carried-forward losses.

Deferred income tax.

Deferred income tax is the amount which the company must pay or be refunded due to temporary difference between carrying amount of assets and liabilities for the purpose of preparation of financial statement and the basis for calculation of income. Deferred income tax must be recognized for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred income tax assets are only recognized when it is sure that there will have taxable profits in the future to use these deducted temporary difference.

The carrying value of deferred income tax assets is reassessed at the end of the reporting period and will be reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow the benefit of some or all of the deferred income tax assets to be realized. Deferred income tax assets that were not previously recognized are reassessed at the end of the reporting period and are recognized when it is probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to utilize the unrecognized deferred income tax assets.

Deferred income tax assets and deferred income tax liabilities are determined based on the tax rates expected to apply in the year the asset is recovered or the liability is settled, using the tax rates enacted at the end of the reporting period. Deferred income tax is recognized in the income statement and only directly in equity when the tax relates to items recognized directly in equity.

Deferred income tax assets and payable deferred income tax are offset when:

- The company has a legal right to offset current tax assets against payable current income tax; and deferred income tax assets and deferred income tax related to corporate income tax managed by the same tax authority.
- For the same taxable entity; or
- The company intends to settle payable current income tax and current income tax assets on a net basis, or recover the assets simultaneously with the settlement of liabilities in future periods when the significant amounts of deferred income tax or deferred income tax assets are settled or recovered.

23. Stakeholders

The parties considered as stakeholders when they have ability to control or make significant influence on the other party to make decision of financial policies and activities. The parties are also considered as stakeholders if they are under joint control or significant influence.

In consideration of relationship of stakeholders, the nature of relationship is more focused that legal form.

24. Report by segment

A segment basing on business area is a distinct part that participates in the production or supply of products or services and has risks and economic benefits that are different from those of other sales business.

A segment basing on geographic area is a distinguishable part that engages in the production or supply of products or services within a specific economic environment and has risks and economic benefits that are different from those of sales segments in other economic environments.

Segment information is prepared and presented in accordance with the accounting policies applied in the preparation and presentation of the company's consolidated financial statements.
