- 11.2.1. Issuing new shares to increase charter capital shall be implemented in accordance with relevant laws and regulations, including the conversion of debt into equity by agreement between the creditor and the Company;
- 11.2.2. Converting issued bonds into shares in accordance with the Law;
- 11.2.3. Transferring share premium, retained earnings, and other eligible sources to supplement and increase charter capital. The Company may use the share premium arising from the difference between the selling price and the cost of treasury shares to increase charter capital after all treasury shares have been sold. The Company may use the share premium from the difference between the selling price and the par value of issued shares to increase charter capital one year after the end of the issuance.
- 11.3. Methods of decreasing the Company's charter capital
- 11.3.1. The Company may buy back shares from shareholders to decrease charter capital in strict accordance with the provisions of this Charter and the Law;
- 11.3.2. The decrease of charter capital shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders but shall still ensure the minimum charter capital requirements and financial safety ratios after the reduction, as stipulated by the laws and regulations;
- 11.4. After completing the increase of charter capital or the buyback of shares to decrease charter capital, the Company shall carry out the procedures to amend its License for Establishment and Operation in accordance with this Charter and the Law.

Article 12. Shares and Other Securities of the Company

- 12.1. Shares
- 12.1.1. All shares issued by the Company are ordinary shares. Holders of ordinary shares are ordinary shareholders. Each ordinary share carries one (01) vote.
- 12.1.2. The Company may issue other types of preference shares upon the approval of the General Meeting of Shareholders and in accordance with the provisions of the Law.
- 12.1.3. Ordinary shares cannot be converted into preference shares. Preference shares may be converted into ordinary shares by a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The method and conversion ratio shall be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the provisions of the Law.

- 12.1.4. The offering of ordinary shares shall be prioritized to existing shareholders in proportion to their respective holdings of ordinary shares in the Company, unless otherwise decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders. Any shares not subscribed for by shareholders shall be dealt with by a decision of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may distribute such shares to other shareholders and individuals on terms no more favorable than those offered to existing shareholders, unless otherwise approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
- 12.2. The Company may issue other types of securities when approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders and in accordance with the provisions of this Charter and the Law.

Article 13. Share Certificates and Certificates of Other Securities

13.1. Share Certificates

- 13.1.1. Shareholders of the Company shall be issued a share certificate corresponding to the number and type of shares owned. Share certificates issued by the Company may be in the form of book entries or electronic data confirming the ownership of one or more shares of the Company;

A share certificate is a type of securities that certifies the lawful rights and interests of its holder with respect to a portion of the share capital of the Company. The share certificate shall contain all the content as stipulated in Clause 1, Article 121 of the Law on Enterprises.

- 13.1.2. In the event of an error in the content or form of a share certificate issued by the Company, the rights and interests of the holder of that share certificate shall not be affected.
- 13.1.3. In the event a share certificate is lost, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, the shareholder is entitled to be re-issued a share certificate by the Company upon his/her request. The shareholder's request shall include the following details:
 - 13.1.3.1. Information about the share certificate that was lost, damaged, or otherwise destroyed;
 - 13.1.3.2. An undertaking to be liable for any disputes arising from the re-issuance of the new share certificate.

- 13.2. Certificates of Other Securities: Certificates for bonds or other certificates of securities issued by the Company shall bear the seal and the signature of the Legal Representative and the seal of the Company, unless otherwise specified in the terms and conditions of issuance.

Article 14. Transfer of Company Shares

- 14.1. All shares are freely transferable unless otherwise provided by the Law. Shares listed on the Stock Exchange shall be transferred in accordance with the laws and regulations on securities and the securities market.
- 14.2. Shares that have not been fully paid for may not be transferred and are not entitled to related rights such as the right to receive dividends, the right to receive shares issued to increase share capital from equity sources, the right to purchase newly offered shares, and other rights as provided by the Law.

- 14.3. In the event an individual Shareholder dies, the heir under a will or by law of that Shareholder shall become a Shareholder of the Company.
- 14.4. In the event the shares of a deceased individual Shareholder have no heir, the heir renounces the inheritance, or is disinherited, such shares shall be dealt with in accordance with the civil laws and regulations.
- 14.5. A Shareholder has the right to gift part or all of his/her shares in the Company to other individuals or organizations; or to use shares to settle debts. In such cases, the individual or organization receiving the gift or debt settlement in shares shall become a Shareholder of the Company.
- 14.6. Except where the Company's shares are listed or registered for trading on a Stock Exchange, the recipient of shares in the cases specified in this clause shall only become a shareholder of the Company from the time their information as prescribed in Clause 2, Article 122 of the Law on Enterprises is fully recorded in the shareholder register.

Article 15. Share Buyback

- 15.1. The Company may only buy back its shares when it fully meets the conditions and buyback ratio as stipulated by the Law.
- 15.2. Buyback at the request of a shareholder:
 - 15.2.1. A shareholder has the right to demand that the Company buy back all or part of his/her shares if the shareholder has voted against a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders on matters concerning: a change in the rights and obligations of shareholders as stipulated in the Company's Charter, or the reorganization of the Company;
 - 15.2.2. A request to buy back shares shall be made in writing, stating the name and address of the shareholder, the number of each type of share held, the proposed selling price, and the reason for requesting the buyback. This request shall be sent to the Company within ten (10) days from the date the General Meeting of Shareholders passes the resolution on the aforesaid matters;
 - 15.2.3. The Board of Directors shall determine the buyback price in accordance with the Law on Enterprises. If an agreement on the price cannot be reached, the shareholder may sell the shares to another person, or the parties may request a professional valuation organization to determine the price. The Company shall introduce at least three (03) professional valuation organizations for the shareholder to choose from. The decision of the valuation organization that complies with the provisions of the Law shall be final;
 - 15.2.4. The time limit for the share buyback shall be implemented in accordance with the Law on Enterprises.

- 15.3. Share Buyback pursuant to decision of the Company
- 15.3.1. The Company has the right to buy back no more than thirty percent (30%) of the total number of ordinary shares sold, and part or all of the dividend preference shares sold, in accordance with the following provisions:
- 15.3.2. The Board of Directors has the right to decide to buy back no more than ten percent (10%) of the total number of shares of each type sold within a period of twelve (12) months. In other cases, the buyback of shares shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the Law;
- 15.3.3. The Board of Directors shall decide the buyback price. For ordinary shares, the buyback price shall not be higher than the market price at the time of the buyback, except where the Company buys back shares from each shareholder in proportion to their shareholding in the Company. For other types of shares, if this Charter does not stipulate otherwise or if the Company and the relevant shareholders have no other agreement, the buyback price shall not be lower than the market price;
- 15.4. The procedures and dossier for the share buyback shall be carried out in accordance with this Charter and the Law.

Article 16. Issuance of Bonds

- 16.1. The Company has the right to issue bonds, convertible bonds, warrant-linked bonds, and other types of bonds in accordance with the provisions of the Law.
- 16.2. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall decide on the type, total value, and time of offering for convertible bonds and warrant-linked bonds. In this case, the voting to pass the resolution on the bond offering of the Company shall be conducted in accordance with Article 30 of this Charter.
- 16.3. Except as provided in Clause 16.2 above, the Board of Directors has the right to decide on the type of bond, the total value of the bonds, and the time of offering, provided that the Board of Directors shall report to the General Meeting of Shareholders at its nearest meeting. The report shall be accompanied by the documents and dossier of the bond offering.
- 16.4. The procedures and dossier for the bond offering shall be carried out in accordance with this Charter and the Law.
- 16.5. The Company recognizes the rights of transfer and inheritance of its bondholders. The transfer and inheritance shall comply with the provisions of the Law.

Article 17. Business of Covered Warrants

- 17.1. The Company has the right to conduct business in Covered Warrants.
- 17.2. The issuance of Covered Warrants shall be carried out by the Company in strict accordance with the procedures for offering Covered Warrants as stipulated by the Law and this Charter.

- 17.3. Holders of Covered Warrants have the following rights:
- 17.3.1. The right to receive payment in cash or in the form of the underlying securities according to the conditions and payment methods specified by the Company in the prospectus for each issuance and in accordance with relevant laws and regulations;
 - 17.3.2. The right to be paid in cash if the Covered Warrant is delisted in accordance with the Law;
 - 17.3.3. The right to transfer, gift, bequeath, or pledge for loans in civil relations in accordance with the Law;
 - 17.3.4. To be a secured creditor of the Company; to be given priority by the Company in the payment of assets before unsecured creditors, ordinary shareholders, and preference shareholders in the event the Company is dissolved or becomes bankrupt, in accordance with relevant laws and regulations;
 - 17.3.5. Other rights as stipulated by the Law.

Article 18. Shareholders of the Company

- 18.1. The ownership of shares and all lawful rights of shareholders are protected by the Law.
- 18.2. The founding shareholder of the Company is BaoViet Holdings. At the time of the adoption of this Charter, the number of shares of the Company held by BaoViet Holdings is: Forty-three million, two hundred eighty-one thousand, one hundred ninety-three shares (43,281,193 shares), corresponding to Fifty-nine point nine two percent (59.92%) of the Charter Capital of the Company.
- 18.3. After the legal transfer of ownership or inheritance of shares is completed and the procedures under the provisions of the Law are fulfilled, the holder of such transferred shares shall be recognized as an official shareholder of the Company.
- 18.4. The inability to pay debts, commission of a crime, or death or cessation of operations of any Shareholder shall not affect the operations of the Company.
- 18.5. The total number of shares held by foreign shareholders in the Company shall not exceed the foreign ownership limit as stipulated by the Law.

Article 19. Rights of Shareholders

- 19.1. Ordinary shareholders have the following rights:
 - 19.1.1. To attend and speak at meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders and to exercise the right to vote directly or through an authorized representative or in other forms provided for by the Company's Charter and the Law. Each ordinary share has one vote;
 - 19.1.2. To receive dividends at a rate decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - 19.1.3. The pre-emptive right to purchase new shares in proportion to the holding of ordinary shares of each shareholder in the Company;
 - 19.1.4. To freely transfer their shares to others, except where otherwise provided by relevant laws

- and regulations;
- 19.1.5. To inspect, look up, and extract information on the names and contact addresses in the list of shareholders with voting rights; to request correction of their own inaccurate information;

Article 23. Authorized Representatives

- 23.1. Authorized representative of a shareholder:

All shareholders, whether organizations or individuals, have the right to appoint an authorized representative to exercise their shareholder rights in accordance with the Law.

- 23.1.1. Authorization by an institutional shareholder:

23.1.1.1. An institutional shareholder has the right to appoint one or more authorized representatives to exercise its shareholder rights in accordance with the Law. If more than one (01) authorized representative is appointed, the specific number of shares for each authorized representative shall be determined. If the shareholder does not specify the corresponding number of shares for each authorized representative, the shares will be divided equally among all authorized representatives. The appointment, termination, or change of an authorized representative shall be notified in writing to the Company within the prescribed period. This written notice is only valid for the company from the date the company receives the notice and within the specified period.

- 23.1.1.2. The written appointment of an authorized representative shall contain the following main content:

- a. The name, enterprise code, and head office address of the shareholder;
- b. The number of authorized representatives and the corresponding number of shares for each authorized representative;
- c. The full name, permanent address, nationality, Personal Identification Number, Passport number, or other lawful personal identification number of each authorized representative;
- d. The corresponding term of authorization for each authorized representative, clearly stating the starting date of the authorization;
- e. The full name and signature of the legal representative of the shareholder and of the authorized representative.

- 23.1.1.3. An authorized representative shall meet the following standards and conditions:

- a. Having full civil act capacity;
- b. Not be a person prohibited from establishing and managing enterprises under the Law on Enterprises;
- c. A member or shareholder that is a state-owned enterprise as defined in point b, Clause 1, Article 88 of the Law on Enterprises may not appoint a person who has a family

- relationship with a Company Manager or with the person having authority to appoint the Company Managers to be a representative at another company;
- d. Other conditions as stipulated in the Charter and by the Law.
- 23.1.2. An individual shareholder has the right to authorize another individual to act as their authorized representative to exercise their shareholder rights. The authorization by an individual shareholder shall be made in writing in accordance with the Law. The written authorization shall include the content as stipulated in point 23.1.1.2 of this Article. The appointment, termination, or change of an authorized representative shall be notified in writing to the Company as soon as possible and shall comply with the provisions of points 23.1.1.2 and 23.1.1.3 of this Article.
- 23.2. A shareholder, or the authorized representative of an institutional shareholder, may attend the meeting in person or authorize one or more individuals or other organizations to attend the meeting, or attend through one of the forms stipulated in Clause 26.4, Article 26 of this Charter. If more than one authorized representative attends the meeting, the number of shares and votes authorized for each representative shall be specified.
- 23.2.1. The authorization for an individual or organization to attend a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders as stipulated in Clause 23.2 above shall be made in writing according to the Company's form and shall be signed as follows:
- a. In the case of an individual shareholder being the authorizer, the letter of authorization shall be signed by that shareholder and the individual authorized to attend the meeting/the legal representative of the organization authorized to attend the meeting;
- b. In the case of an institutional shareholder being the authorizer, the letter of authorization shall be signed by the legal representative and/or the authorized representative of the institutional shareholder and the individual authorized to attend the meeting;
- c. In other cases, the letter of authorization shall be signed by the legal representative of the shareholder and the person authorized to attend the meeting.
- 23.2.2. If the letter of authorization is not made according to the Company's form, the letter of authorization shall be prepared in accordance with the civil laws and regulations and shall clearly state the name of the authorizing shareholder, the name of the authorized individual or organization, the number of shares authorized, the content of the authorization, the scope of the authorization, the term of the authorization, and the signatures of the authorizing party and the authorized party. The Company has the right to apply necessary measures and requirements to verify the authenticity of this authorization.
- 23.2.3. The person authorized to attend the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall submit the letter of authorization upon registration for attendance. In the case of re-authorization, the person attending the meeting shall also present the original letter of authorization from the shareholder or the authorized representative of the institutional shareholder (if not previously registered with the Company).

23.2.4. The vote of a person authorized to attend a meeting within the scope of their authorization remains valid if one of the following events occurs:

23.2.4.1. The authorizer has died, has limited civil act capacity, or has lost civil act capacity;

23.2.4.2. The authorizer has revoked the appointment of authorization;

23.2.4.3. The authorizer has revoked the authority of the person who executed the authorization;

23.2.4.4. This provision does not apply if the Company receives notice of any of the above events before the opening of the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders or before the meeting is reconvened.

Article 24. Convening the Meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders

24.1. Number, time, method, and location of meetings

24.1.1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall convene an annual meeting at least once (01) a year or may convene extraordinary meetings. The location of the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders is determined as the place where the chairperson attends the meeting and shall be within the territory of Vietnam.

24.1.2. The Annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held within four (04) months from the end of the financial years. The Board of Directors shall decide to extend the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders in case of necessity, but not exceeding six (06) months from the end of the financial years.

24.1.3. The Board of Directors shall convene the annual meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders and select a suitable location. The annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall decide on matters as stipulated by the Law and this Charter, and shall in particular approve the annual audited financial statements. In cases where the audit report on the Company's annual financial statements contains material exceptions, an adverse opinion, or a disclaimer of opinion, the Company shall invite a representative of the approved audit firm that audited the financial statements of the Company to attend the annual meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders, and the representative of said approved audit firm is responsible for attending the Company's annual meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

24.2. The Board of Directors shall convene an extraordinary meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders in the following cases:

24.2.1. The Board of Directors deems it necessary for the benefit of the Company;

24.2.2. The number of remaining Members of the Board of Directors or Supervisors is less than the minimum number required by the Law;

24.2.3. At the request of a shareholder or group of shareholders as stipulated in Clause 19.2, Article 19 of this Charter. The request to convene a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be in writing and shall include the following content: full name, contact address, nationality, number of the legal identification document of the individual for an individual shareholder; name, enterprise code or number of the legal document of the organization, address of the head office for an institutional shareholder; the number of shares and the time of registration of the shares of each shareholder, the total number of shares of the group of shareholders and their ownership percentage of the total shares of the company, and the basis and reason for requesting to convene the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The request to convene the meeting shall be accompanied by documents and evidence of the violations of the Board of Directors, the extent of the violation, or the decision that exceeds its authority. The shareholder or group of shareholders shall bear legal responsibility for the accuracy and truthfulness of the documents and evidence provided to the competent authority when requesting the convening of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

24.2.4. At the request of the Supervisory Board;

24.2.5. Other cases as specified by the Company in accordance with this Charter and the Law.

24.3. Convening an extraordinary meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders:

24.3.1. The Board of Directors shall convene a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders within thirty (30) days from the date the number of remaining Members of the Board of Directors or Supervisors falls into the case stipulated in point 24.2.2, or upon receiving a request as stipulated in points 24.2.3 and 24.2.4 of this Article.

24.3.2. If the Board of Directors fails to convene a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders as stipulated in point 24.3.1, Clause 24.3 of this Article, within the next thirty (30) days, the Supervisory Board shall replace the Board of Directors in convening the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders. If the Supervisory Board fails to convene the meeting as stipulated, the Supervisory Board shall compensate for any damages incurred by the Company (if any).

24.3.3. If the Supervisory Board fails to convene a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders as stipulated in point 24.3.2, Clause 24.3 of this Article, the shareholder or group of shareholders as stipulated in point 24.2.3, Clause 24.2 of this Article has the right to request a representative of the Company to convene a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with this Charter and the Law.

In this case, the shareholder or group of shareholders convening the meeting may request the business registration authority to supervise the procedures for convening and conducting the meeting and for passing resolutions. All costs for convening and conducting the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders will be reimbursed by the Company. These costs do not include expenses incurred by shareholders when attending the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders, including accommodation and travel expenses.

Article 25. Agenda and Content of the Meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders

25.1. The annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall discuss and approve the following matters:

25.1.1. The annual audited Financial Statements;

- 25.1.2. The annual business plan of the Company;
- 25.1.3. The report of the Board of Directors on the governance and performance of the Board of Directors and of each of its Members;
- 25.1.4. The report of the Supervisory Board on the business results of the Company, and on the performance of the Board of Directors and the Board of Management;
- 25.1.5. The self-assessment report on the performance of the Supervisory Board and of each Supervisor;
- 25.1.6. The dividend rate for each type of shares;
- 25.1.7. The total remuneration paid to the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board;
- 25.1.8. Other matters falling under the decision-making authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders as stipulated in this Charter and by the Law.
- 25.2. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall perform the following tasks:
 - 25.2.1. Prepare a list of shareholders eligible to participate and vote at the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The list of shareholders entitled to attend the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be prepared no more than ten (10) days before the date of sending the notice of the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Company shall disclose information about the preparation of the list of shareholders entitled to attend the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders at least twenty (20) days before the final registration date;
 - 25.2.2. Prepare the agenda and content of the meeting;
 - 25.2.3. Prepare documents for the meeting;
 - 25.2.4. Draft resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders based on the proposed content of the meeting;
 - 25.2.5. Determine the time and location of the meeting;
 - 25.2.6. Notify and send a notice of the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders to all shareholders entitled to attend;
 - 25.2.7. Other tasks to serve the meeting.
- 25.3. The notice of the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be sent to all shareholders by a method that ensures it reaches the shareholder's contact address, and shall be simultaneously published on the Company's website. The convener of the meeting shall send the notice to all shareholders on the list of shareholders entitled to attend the meeting at least twenty-one (21) days before the opening date of the meeting (calculated from the date the notice is validly sent or dispatched). The agenda and documents related to the matters to be voted on at the meeting shall be sent to the shareholders and/or posted on the Company's website. If documents are not sent with the meeting notice, the notice shall specify the link to all meeting documents so that shareholders can access them, including:

- 25.3.1. The meeting agenda and documents to be used in the meeting;
- 25.3.2. A list and detailed information of candidates in the case of an election of members of the Board of Directors or Supervisors (if the candidates have been identified in advance);
- 25.3.3. Voting cards;
- 25.3.4. A form for appointing authorized representatives to attend the meeting;
- 25.3.5. Draft resolutions for each issue on the agenda.
- 25.4. A shareholder or group of shareholders as stipulated in Clause 19.2, Article 19 of this Charter has the right to propose matters to be included in the agenda of the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The proposal shall be in writing and sent to the Company at least three (03) working days before the opening date of the meeting. The proposal shall clearly state the shareholder's name, the number of each type of share held, and the matter proposed for inclusion in the agenda.
- 25.5. If the convener of the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders rejects these proposals, a written reply stating the reasons shall be provided at least two (02) working days before the opening date of the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The convener of the meeting may reject a proposal in the following cases:
 - 25.5.1. The proposal is not sent in accordance with Clause 25.4 of this Article;
 - 25.5.2. At the time of the proposal, the shareholder or group of shareholders did not hold five percent (5%) or more of the total number of ordinary shares;
 - 25.5.3. The proposed matter is not within the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - 25.5.4. Other cases in accordance with this Charter and by the Law.
 - 25.5.5. The convener of the meeting of General Meeting of Shareholders shall accept and include the proposal stipulated in Clause 25.4 of this Article in the proposed agenda and content of the meeting, except for the cases stipulated in Clause 25.5 of this Article. The proposal shall be officially added to the agenda and content of the meeting if approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 26. Conditions for Conducting the Meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders

- 26.1. A meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted when the number of attending shareholders represents more than fifty percent (50%) of the total voting shares.
- 26.2. If the first meeting does not meet the conditions for being conducted as stipulated in Clause 26.1 of this Article, a notice for a second meeting shall be sent within thirty (30) days from the intended date of the first meeting. The second meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted when the number of attending shareholders represents thirty-three percent (33%) or more of the total voting shares.
- 26.3. If the second meeting does not meet the conditions for being conducted as stipulated in Clause 26.2 of this Article, a notice for a third meeting shall be sent within twenty (20) days from the intended date of the second meeting. The third meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted irrespective of the total number of voting shares of the attending shareholders.

- 26.4. A shareholder may attend the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders in one of the following forms:
- 26.4.1. Attending the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders in person;
 - 26.4.2. Sending a voting card by registered mail, fax, or email to the Board of Directors before the opening of the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - 26.4.3. Authorizing another individual or organization to attend the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders. If an institutional shareholder does not have an authorized representative as stipulated in Article 23 of this Charter, it is permitted to authorize another person to attend the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - 26.4.4. Attending and voting via online conference, electronic voting, or other electronic forms;
 - 26.4.5. Attending the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders or sending a voting card by other means as decided by the Board of Directors of the Company.

Article 27. Procedures for Conducting the Meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders

- 27.1. Before the opening of the meeting, the Company shall carry out the shareholders registration procedures and shall continue such registration until all shareholders entitled to attend the meeting who are present have completed their registration in the following sequence:
- 27.1.1. When conducting shareholder registration, the Company shall issue to each shareholder or authorized representative with voting rights a voting card, which records the registration number, the full name of the shareholder, the full name of the authorized representative, and the number of votes of that shareholder. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect a vote-counting committee to be responsible for counting votes or supervising the vote counting, upon the proposal of the Chairperson. The number of members of the vote-counting committee shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders based on the proposal of the Chairperson of the meeting.
- 27.2. The election of the chairperson, secretary, and vote-counting committee shall be regulated as follows:
- 27.2.1. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall act as the chairperson or shall authorize another member of the Board of Directors to chair the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders convened by the Board of Directors. If the Chairperson is absent or temporarily unable to perform his/her duties, the remaining members of the Board of Directors shall elect one among themselves to chair the meeting by a majority vote. If a chairperson cannot be elected, the Head of the Supervisory Board shall preside over the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect a chairperson among the attendees, and the person with the highest number of votes shall be the chairperson of the meeting;

- 27.2.2. Except for the case provided in point 27.2.1 of this clause, the person who signed the notice to convene the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall preside over the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect a chairperson, and the person with the highest number of votes shall be the chairperson of the meeting;
- 27.2.3. The chairperson shall appoint one or more persons to act as a secretary of the meeting;
- 27.2.4. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect one or more persons to the vote-counting committee upon the proposal of the chairperson of the meeting.
- 27.3. The agenda and content of the meeting shall be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders in the opening session. The agenda shall specify the time allotted for all matters in the meeting's agenda.
- 27.4. The chairperson of the meeting has the right to take necessary and reasonable measures to conduct the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders in an orderly manner, in accordance with the approved agenda, and reflecting the wishes of the majority of attendees:
- 27.4.1. Arranging the seats at the meeting location of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- 27.4.2. Ensuring the safety of everyone present at the meeting locations;
- 27.4.3. Facilitating the shareholders to attend (or continue to attend) the meeting. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders has full discretion to change the above measures and to apply all necessary measures. The measures applied may include issuing admission tickets or using other selection methods.
- 27.5. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall discuss and vote on each issue in the agenda. Voting shall be conducted by collecting/counting voting cards or slips marked "approve", then collecting/counting voting cards or slips marked "do not approve", and finally collecting/counting voting cards or slips marked "no opinion"; after that, the total number of "approve", "do not approve", and "no opinion" votes is aggregated. The results of the vote count shall be announced by the Chairperson before the closing of the meeting.
- 27.6. A shareholder or authorized person who arrives after the meeting has commenced may register to attend and has the right to vote immediately after registration is complete. The chairperson is not obliged to halt the meeting for attendees who arrive late to register. In this case, the validity of votes already conducted shall not be affected.
- 27.7. The convener or the chairperson of the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the following rights:
- 27.7.1. To require all attendees to undergo a security check or to comply with other security measures;
- 27.7.2. To request the competent authorities to maintain order at the meeting; to expel from the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders people who do not comply with the chairperson's authority, who intentionally cause disorder, who obstruct the normal progress of the meeting, or who fail to comply with security check requirements.

- 27.8. The chairperson has the right to adjourn a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders that has a sufficient number of registered attendees for a maximum period of three (03) working days from the intended opening date, and may only adjourn the meeting or change the meeting location in the following cases:
- 27.8.1. The meeting location does not have adequate and convenient seating for all attendees;
- 27.8.2. The communication facilities at the meeting location do not ensure that attending shareholders can participate, discuss, and vote;
- 27.8.3. An attendee is obstructing or causing disorder, threatening to prevent the meeting from being conducted in a fair and lawful manner.
- 27.9. If the chairperson adjourns or suspends the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders contrary to the provisions of Clause 27.8 of this Article, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect another person among the attendees to replace the chairperson to preside over the meeting until its conclusion; all resolutions passed at that meeting shall be valid and enforceable.

Article 28. Cumulative Voting

- 28.1. Before and during the General Meeting of Shareholders, shareholders have the right to form groups to nominate and cumulate votes for their nominees.
- 28.2. The number of candidates that each group has the right to nominate depends on the number of candidates decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders and the share ownership ratio of each group, specifically as follows:
- 28.2.1. A shareholder or group of shareholders holding from ten percent (10%) to less than twenty percent (20%) of the total voting shares may nominate a maximum of one (01) candidate for the Board of Directors and one (01) candidate for the Supervisory Board;
- 28.2.2. A shareholder or group of shareholders holding from twenty percent (20%) to less than thirty percent (30%) of the total voting shares may nominate a maximum of two (02) candidates for the Board of Directors and two (02) candidates for the Supervisory Board;
- 28.2.3. A shareholder or group of shareholders holding from thirty percent (30%) to forty percent (40%) of the total voting shares may nominate a maximum of three (03) candidates for the Board of Directors and three (03) candidates for the Supervisory Board;
- 28.2.4. A shareholder or group of shareholders holding from over forty percent (40%) to less than fifty percent (50%) of the total voting shares may nominate a maximum of four (04) candidates for the Board of Directors and four (04) candidates for the Supervisory Board;
- 28.2.5. A shareholder or group of shareholders holding fifty percent (50%) or more of the total voting shares may nominate the full number of candidates for the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board;
- 28.3. If the number of candidates nominated by a shareholder or group of shareholders is lower than the number they are entitled to nominate, the remaining candidates shall be nominated by the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board.

- 28.4. The persons elected as Members of the Board of Directors or Supervisors shall be determined by the number of votes from highest to lowest, starting from the candidate with the highest number of votes until the number of Members stipulated in this Charter is reached. If two (02) or more candidates receive the same number of votes for the final position on the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board, the General Meeting of Shareholders will conduct a re-vote among the candidates with equal votes, or select based on the criteria of the election regulations or by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders at the time of election.

Article 29. Authority and Procedures for Obtaining Written Opinions of Shareholders to Pass a Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders

The authority and procedures for obtaining written opinions of shareholders to pass a Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be implemented as follows:

- 29.1. The Board of Directors has the right to obtain written opinions of shareholders to pass a Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders instead of voting at a meeting for any matter if deemed necessary for the interests of the Company, except for holding the annual meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders, including the following decisions:
- 29.1.1. Amending and supplementing the content of the Company's Charter;
 - 29.1.2. Changing business lines and sectors;
 - 29.1.3. Changing the organizational management structure of the Company;
 - 29.1.4. Reorganizing or dissolving the Company;
 - 29.1.5. Deciding on an investment or sale of assets with a value of thirty-five percent (35%) or more of the total asset value recorded in the Company's most recent Financial Statements;
 - 29.1.6. The types of shares and the total number of shares of each type;
 - 29.1.7. The issuance of convertible bonds and warrants that allow the holder to purchase shares at a predetermined price;

 - 29.1.9. The development orientation of the Company;
 - 29.1.10. Electing, discharging, or removing members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board;
- 29.2. The Board of Directors shall prepare the written opinion form, the draft Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders, and the explanatory documents for the draft Resolution and send them to all shareholders with voting rights at least ten (10) days before the deadline for returning the written opinion form. The preparation of the list of shareholders to receive the written opinion form shall be carried out in accordance with point 25.2.1, Clause 25.2, Article 25 of this Charter. The requirements and method for sending the written opinion form and accompanying documents shall be carried out in accordance with Clause 25.3, Article 25 of this Charter.

- 29.3. The written opinion form shall contain the following main content:
 - 29.3.1. Name, head office address, enterprise code;
 - 29.3.2. The purpose of obtaining opinions;
 - 29.3.3. Full name, contact address, nationality, number of the legal identification document for an individual shareholder; name, enterprise code or number of the legal document of the organization, head office address for an institutional shareholder, or full name, contact address, nationality, number of the legal identification document of the representative of an institutional shareholder; the number of shares of each type and the number of votes of the shareholder;
 - 29.3.4. The issue on which opinions are sought for approval;
 - 29.3.5. Voting options including: "Approve", "Do not approve", and "No opinion" for each issue on which opinions are being sought;
 - 29.3.6. The deadline by which the completed written opinion form shall be returned to the Company;
 - 29.3.7. Full name and signature of the Chairperson of the Board of Directors.
- 29.4. A completed written opinion form shall be signed by the individual shareholder, or by the authorized representative, or the Legal Representative of an institutional shareholder or individual, or the legal representative of an authorized organization.
- 29.5. Shareholders may send the completed written opinion form to the Company by mail, fax, or email as follows:
 - 29.5.1. If sent by mail, the completed written opinion form shall be signed by the individual shareholder, or the authorized representative or legal representative of the institutional shareholder. The written opinion form sent to the company shall be enclosed in a sealed envelope and no one is permitted to open it before the vote count;
 - 29.5.2. If sent by fax or email, the written opinion form sent to the Company shall be kept confidential until the time of the vote count;
 - 29.5.3. Written opinion forms returned to the Company after the deadline specified in the form, or that have been opened if sent by mail, or disclosed if sent by fax or email, are invalid. Forms that are not returned are considered as abstentions from voting;
- 29.6. The Board of Directors shall organize the vote counting and prepare the Vote Counting Minutes under the witness of the Supervisory Board or of a shareholder who does not hold a management position in the Company. The Vote Counting Minutes shall include the following main content:
 - 29.6.1. Name, head office address, enterprise code;

- 29.6.2. The purpose and issues on which opinions were sought to pass the Resolution;
- 29.6.3. The number of shareholders with the total number of votes who participated in the voting, distinguishing between valid votes, invalid votes, and the method of submission, accompanied by an appendix listing the shareholders participating in the voting;
- 29.6.4. The total number of approve, do not approve, and no opinion votes for each issue;
- 29.6.5. The matters that have been passed and the corresponding approval voting percentage;
- 29.6.6. Full names and signatures of the Chairperson of the Board of Directors, the vote-counting supervisor, and the vote counter;
- 29.6.7. The Members of the Board of Directors, the vote counter, and the vote-counting supervisor shall be jointly responsible for the truthfulness and accuracy of the Vote Counting Minutes; and jointly responsible for any damages arising from decisions passed due to dishonest or inaccurate vote counting.
- 29.7. The Vote Counting Minutes and the resolution shall be sent to the shareholders within fifteen (15) days from the end of the vote count. The sending of the Vote Counting Minutes and resolution may be replaced by publishing them on the Company's website within twenty-four (24) hours from the end of the vote count;
- 29.8. The completed written opinion forms, the Vote Counting Minutes, the passed Resolution, and related documents sent with the written opinion form shall all be archived at the Head Office of the Company;
- 29.9. A resolution is passed by obtaining written opinions of shareholders if it is approved by shareholders holding more than fifty percent (50%) of the total voting shares of all shareholders entitled to vote, and it has the same validity as a resolution passed at a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 30. Passing Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

- 30.1. A resolution on the following matters shall be passed if it is approved by a number of shareholders representing at least sixty-five percent (65%) of the total voting shares of all shareholders attending and voting at the meeting:

- 36.5. If the Chairperson of the Board of Directors does not convene a meeting as proposed in Clause 36.4 above, he/she shall be responsible for any damages incurred by the Company (if any), and the proposer has the right to convene a meeting of the Board of Directors in place of the Chairperson.
- 36.6. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors or the person convening the meeting of the Board of Directors shall send a notice of invitation to the meeting to the Members of the Board of Directors, Supervisors, and the General Director at least five (05) working days before the meeting date. The meeting invitation notice shall specify the time and location of the meeting, the agenda, the matters for discussion and decision, and be accompanied by the documents to be used at the meeting and voting cards for the Members.
- 36.7. The meeting invitation notice of the Board of Directors' meeting may be sent by one of the following methods: invitation letter, telephone, fax, electronic means, or other means, but shall ensure it reaches the address of each Member of the Board of Directors registered with the Company or is delivered directly to the Members.
- 36.8. Supervisors and the General Director who are not Members of the Board of Directors have the right to attend meetings of the Board of Directors, and have the right to discuss but not to vote.
- 36.9. A meeting of the Board of Directors convened for the first time shall be conducted when at least three-quarters (3/4) of the total Members of the Board of Directors are present in person or through a representative (an authorized person) if approved by a majority of the Members of the Board of Directors. If a meeting convened for the first time does not have a sufficient number of attending Members as required, a second meeting may be convened within seven (07) days from the intended date of the first meeting. In this case, the meeting shall be conducted if more than one-half (1/2) of the Members of the Board of Directors attend.

36.10. A Member of the Board of Directors is considered having attended and voted at a meeting in the following cases:

36.10.1. Attending and voting in person at the meeting;

36.10.2. Authorizing another person to attend and vote at the meeting, if approved by a majority of the members of the Board of Directors;

36.10.3. Attending and voting via online conference, electronic voting, or other electronic forms;

36.10.4. Sending a voting card to the meeting by mail, fax, or email;

36.10.5. Sending a voting card by other means as stipulated by the Board of Directors.

36.11. If a voting card is sent to the meeting by mail, it shall be in a sealed envelope and shall be delivered to the Chairperson of the Board of Directors at least one (01) hour before the opening of the meeting. The voting card shall only be opened in the presence of all attending persons.

36.12. Voting

36.12.1. A Resolution or Decision of the Board of Directors is passed if it is approved by a majority of the attending Members of the Board of Directors. If the votes are tied, the final decision shall be in favor of the side supported by the Chairperson of the Board of Directors;

36.12.2. Except as provided in point 36.12.3 of this clause, each Member of the Board of Directors or their authorized representative who is directly and personally present at a meeting of the Board of Directors shall have one vote;

36.12.3. A Member of the Board of Directors who has interest related to the parties in a contract or transaction shall not be allowed to vote on such contract or transaction as stipulated in Clause 52.2 of Article 52 of this Charter.

36.13. Meetings of the Board of Directors may be held in the form of an online conference among the Members of the Board of Directors when all or some Members are in different locations, provided that each participating Member can:

36.13.1. Hear every other participating Member of the Board of Directors speak during the meeting;

36.13.2. Speak to all other participating Members simultaneously.

The discussion among the Members of the Board of Directors may be conducted directly by telephone or by other means of communication, or a combination of all these methods. For the purposes of this Charter, a Member of the Board of Directors participating in such a meeting is considered "present" at that meeting. The location of a meeting held under this provision shall be the location where the majority of Members are present, or the location where the Chairperson of the meeting is present.

Decisions passed in a meeting via telephone which is properly organized and conducted are effective immediately upon the conclusion of the meeting but shall be subsequently confirmed by the signatures of all participating Members on the Minutes of that meeting.

- 36.14. A Resolution in the form of obtaining written opinions is passed based on the approval of a majority of the Members of the Board of Directors entitled to vote; if the votes for and against are tied, the resolution is passed in favor of the side supported by the Chairperson of the Board of Directors. This Resolution has the same effect and value as a Resolution passed by the Members of the Board of Directors at a meeting.
- 36.15. The Board of Directors may establish Committees to support its activities, including a Corporate Governance, Appointment, and Remuneration Committee; a Risk Management and ALCO Committee; an Audit Committee, and other Committees. The number of members of a Committee shall be decided by the Board of Directors and shall be at least three (03) members. Independent members/non-executive members of the Board of Directors shall constitute a majority on the Committees as decided by the Board of Directors.
- 36.16. Based on the functions and duties of the Committees, the Board of Directors shall specify the details of the establishment, responsibilities, and operating regulations, as well as the standards, conditions, and responsibilities for each Member of these Committees, ensuring compliance with the Company Charter and the provisions of the Law. Members of a Committee may include one or more Members of the Board of Directors and one or more external members as decided by the Board of Directors.
- 36.17. Operating principles of the Committees:
- 36.17.1. The Board of Directors may delegate its powers to its subordinate Committees. In exercising delegated powers, the Committees shall comply with the regulations set forth by the Board of Directors.
- 36.17.2. The Committees shall pass resolutions and decisions by voting at meetings or by obtaining written opinions.
- 36.17.3. The attendance and voting of Committee members at Committee meetings shall be conducted in a manner similar to that of Members of the Board of Directors attending and voting at Board of Directors meetings, as stipulated from Clause 36.10 to Clause 36.12 of this Article. A resolution or decision of a Committee is valid only if it is approved by a majority of the members attending and voting at the Committee meeting. If the votes for and against are tied, the resolution or decision is passed in favor of the side supported by the Chairperson of the Committee.
- 36.17.4. A resolution or decision in the form of obtaining written opinion is passed based on the approval of a majority of the Committee members entitled to vote; if the votes for and against are tied, the resolution or decision is passed in favor of the side supported by the Chairperson of the Committee. A Committee member who has interest related to the parties in a contract or transaction shall not be allowed to vote on such contract or transaction.
- 36.18. Minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors
- 36.18.1. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be recorded in minutes and may be audiorecorded, or recorded and stored in other electronic forms. The minutes of a meeting of the Board of Directors shall contain the following main content:

- 36.18.1.1. Name, head office address, enterprise code;
- 36.18.1.2. Purpose, agenda, and content of the meeting;
- 36.18.1.3. Time and location of the meeting;
- 36.18.1.4. Full name of each attending member or person authorized to attend the meeting and their method of attendance; full names of non-attending members and the reasons;

- 36.18.1.6. A summary of the opinions of each attending member in the order of the meeting's proceedings;
- 36.18.1.7. The results of the voting, clearly stating which members approved, did not approve, and had no opinion;
- 36.18.1.8. The matters that have been passed and the corresponding approval voting percentage;
- 36.18.1.9. Full names and signatures of the chairperson and the person taking the minutes. If the chairperson or the person taking the minutes refuses to sign the minutes, the minutes shall still be valid in case it is signed by all other attending members of the Board of Directors and contains all the main content as required from item 36.18.1.1 to item 36.18.1.8, point 36.18.1, Clause 36.18. The minutes shall clearly state the refusal of the chairperson or the person taking the minutes to sign the minutes. The persons signing the minutes are jointly responsible for the accuracy and truthfulness of the content of the Board of Directors meeting minutes. The chairperson and the person taking the minutes are personally liable for any damages to the enterprise resulting from their refusal to sign the minutes, in accordance with this Charter and relevant laws and regulations;
- 36.18.1.10. The chairperson, the person taking the minutes, and those who sign the minutes shall be responsible for the truthfulness and accuracy of the content of the Board of Directors meeting minutes.
- 36.18.2. The minutes of Board of Directors meetings and the documents used in the meetings shall be archived at the head office of the Company.
- 36.18.3. The minutes of a Board of Directors meeting shall be prepared in Vietnamese and may also be in a foreign language with equal validity. In case of any discrepancy in content between the Vietnamese and the foreign language versions of the minutes, the content of the Vietnamese version shall prevail.
- 36.18.4. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors is responsible for delivering the Minutes of the Board of Directors meetings to the Members, and such Minutes shall serve as conclusive evidence of the work conducted at those meetings.
- 36.19. Annually, the Board of Directors shall request each Independent Member of the Board of Directors to prepare a report evaluating the activities of the Board of Directors; this evaluation report shall be incorporated into the Operational Report of the Board of Directors to be reported at the annual meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 37. Discharge, Removal, and Appointment of Additional Members of the Board of Directors

- 52.1.3. An enterprise, partner, association, or organization that a member of the Board of Directors, a Supervisor, a member of the Board of Management, or a Company Manager shall declare under Clause 50.2, Article 50 of this Charter.
- 52.2. The Board of Directors shall approve the contracts and transactions under Clause 52.1 of this Article that have a value of less than thirty-five percent (35%) of the total asset value of the Company as recorded in its most recent Financial Statements. In this case, the Company representative signing the contract or transaction shall notify the Members of the Board of Directors and Supervisors of the related parties to that contract or transaction, and attach a draft of the contract or the main content of the transaction. The Board of Directors shall decide on the approval of the contract or transaction within fifteen (15) days from the date of receiving the notice; a member of the Board of Directors who has a related interest to the parties to the contract or transaction does not have the right to vote.
- 52.3. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall approve contracts and transactions other than those specified in Clause 52.2 of this Article; and contracts and transactions for borrowing, lending, or selling assets with a value greater than ten percent (10%) of the total asset value of the Company as recorded in its most recent Financial Statements, between the Company and a shareholder who owns fifty-one percent (51%) or more of the total voting shares, or a Related Person of that shareholder. In this case, the Company representative signing the contract or transaction shall notify the Members of the Board of Directors and Supervisors of the related parties to that contract or transaction; and attach a draft of the contract or a notice of the main content of the transaction. The Board of Directors shall submit the draft contract or transaction, or an explanation of the main content of the contract or transaction, to a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders or shall obtain written opinions from the shareholders. In this case, a shareholder who has a related interest to the parties to the contract or transaction does not have the right to vote; the contract or transaction shall be approved in accordance with Clause 29.9 of Article 29 and Clause 30.1 of Article 30 of this Charter.
- 52.4. A contract or transaction shall be declared void by a court decision and handled in accordance with the Law if it is not entered into in accordance with the provisions of Clause 52.2 and Clause 52.3 of this Article and causes damage to the Company. The person who signed the contract or transaction, and any related shareholder, Member of the Board of Directors, or General Director shall be jointly liable to compensate for any resulting damages and to return to the Company any benefits derived from the performance of that contract or transaction.
- 52.5. The Company shall disclose related contracts and transactions in accordance with relevant laws and regulations.

CHAPTER IX. FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT, ACCOUNTING, EMPLOYEES, AND TRADE UNION

Article 53. Fiscal Year

The Company's fiscal year begins on the first (01) day of January and ends on the thirty-first (31) day of December of the Gregorian calendar each year.

Article 54. Accounting System

- 54.1. The accounting system used by the Company is the enterprise accounting system or another accounting system approved by the Ministry of Finance, in compliance with the accounting system for Securities Companies issued by the Ministry of Finance and its guiding documents.
- 54.2. The Company shall prepare its official accounting records in Vietnamese. The Company shall maintain accounting records according to the type of its business activities in accordance with the provisions of the laws and regulations on accounting and other relevant laws and regulations. These records shall be accurate, up-to-date, systematic, and sufficient to substantiate and explain the Company's transactions.
- 54.3. The Company shall use the Vietnamese Dong as the currency unit in its accounting. If the Company's economic transactions primarily arise in a single foreign currency, it may choose that foreign currency as its accounting currency, shall be responsible for that choice before the Law, and shall notify its direct tax management authority.

Article 55. Bank Accounts

- 55.1. The Company shall open accounts at Vietnamese banks or at foreign banks licensed to operate in Vietnam.
- 55.2. With prior approval from the competent authority, the Company may open bank accounts abroad if necessary, in accordance with the provisions of the Law.
- 55.3. The Company shall conduct all payments and accounting transactions through cash or deposits from its Vietnamese Dong or foreign currency accounts at the banks where the Company holds accounts.

Article 56. Review and Audit

- 56.1. The annual Financial Statements, the financial safety ratio report as of December 31, the semi-annual Financial Statements, and the financial safety ratio report as of June 30 of the Company shall be audited or reviewed by an independent audit organization.
- 56.2. The independent audit organization and the staff of the Independent Audit Firm conducting the audit for the Company shall be approved by the SSC. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall appoint an Independent Audit Firm or approve a list of Independent Audit Firms and authorize the Board of Directors to select one from this list to conduct the audit activities for the Company for the following fiscal year, based on the terms and conditions agreed upon with the Board of Directors.

- 56.3. After the end of the fiscal year, the Company shall prepare and send to the Independent Audit Firm the annual Financial Statements. The Independent Audit Firm shall inspect, certify, and provide an opinion on the annual Financial Statements, prepare an Audit Report, and send that report to the Board of Directors along with a Management Letter (if any).
- 56.4. The independent auditor conducting the audit and review of the Company's Financial Statements is permitted to attend all meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders and is entitled to receive notices and other information related to the General Meeting of Shareholders that shareholders are entitled to receive, and to express opinions at the Meeting on matters related to the audit of the Company's financial statements.

Article 57. Dividends

- 57.1. By a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders and in accordance with the Law, dividends shall be declared and paid from the Company's retained earnings but shall not exceed the level proposed by the Board of Directors and approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders. Dividends shall be paid in full within six (06) months from the closing date of the annual meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Company may only pay dividends to shareholders when it is profitable and has fulfilled its other financial obligations in accordance with the Law; has made appropriation to Company funds and offset previous losses in accordance with the Law and the Company Charter; and at the same time can ensure full payment of its debts and other property obligations which become due after the dividend payment.
- 57.2. The Board of Directors may decide to pay interim dividends if it considers that such payment is consistent with the Company's profitability.
- 57.3. The Company shall not pay interest on any dividend or unpaid payment in respect of any type of shares.
- 57.4. The Board of Directors may propose that the General Meeting of Shareholders approve the payment of all or part of the dividend by shares, and the Board of Directors shall be the body to implement this Resolution.
- 57.5. If dividends or other amounts related to a type of shares are paid in cash, the Company shall pay in Vietnamese Dong. Payment may be made directly or through banks based on the bank account details provided by the shareholder. If the Company has made a transfer according to the correct bank account details provided by a shareholder and that shareholder does not receive the money, the Company shall not be responsible for the amount it has transferred to that shareholder. The payment of dividends for shares listed on the SE may be made through a Securities Company or the Vietnam Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation.
- 57.6. With the approval of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board of Directors may decide and announce that holders of ordinary shares may receive dividends in the form of ordinary shares instead of cash dividends. These additional shares issued for dividend payment are recorded as fully paid shares on the basis that the value of the shares issued for dividend payment shall be equivalent to the cash amount of the dividend.

- 57.7. In accordance with the Law on Enterprises and the Law on Securities, the Board of Directors shall pass a Decision to determine a specific record date for finalizing the list of shareholders. Based on that date, persons registered as shareholders or holders of other securities are entitled to receive dividends in cash or by shares, or to receive notices or other documents.
- 57.8. Other matters related to the distribution of profit shall be implemented in accordance with the provisions of the Law.

Article 58. Handling of Business Losses
