2. Foreign currency transactions

Transactions denominated in foreign currencies are converted at the exchange rate ruling as of the transaction dates. The balances of monetary items denominated in foreign currencies at the end of the accounting period are converted at the exchange rate prevailing on that date.

Foreign exchange differences arisen from foreign currency transactions during the year shall be included into financial income or financial expenses. Foreign exchange differences due to the revaluation of ending balances of the monetary items in foreign currencies after offsetting their positive differences against negative differences shall be included into financial income or financial expenses.

The exchange rate used to convert foreign currency transactions is the actual exchange rate ruling as at the time of these transactions. The actual exchange rates applied to foreign currency transactions are as follows:

KHANH HOA SANEST SOFT DRINK JOINT STOCK COMPANY

Address: National Road No.1, Nam Cam Ranh Commune, Khanh Hoa Province, Vietnam

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the fourth quarter of the fiscal year ending 31 December 2025

- For foreign currency trading contracts (spot contracts for foreign currency trading, forward contracts): the exchange rate agreed upon in the contracts of trading foreign currency between the Company and the Bank.
- For receivables: the buying rate of foreign currency ruling as at the time of transaction of the commercial bank where the Company designates the customers to make payments.
- For payables: the selling rate of foreign currency ruling as at the time of transaction of the commercial bank where the Company intends to make payments.
- For acquisition of assets or immediate payments in foreign currency (not included into payable accounts): the buying rate of the commercial bank where the Company makes payments.

The exchange rate used to re-evaluate ending balances of monetary items in foreign currencies is determined in accordance with following principles:

- For foreign currency deposits: the buying rate of the bank where the Company opens its foreign currency account.
- For monetary items denominated in foreign currency classified as other assets: the buying rate of the Bank where the Company regularly conducts transactions.
- For monetary items denominated in foreign currency classified as liabilities: the selling rate of the Bank where the Company regularly conducts transactions.

3. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash include cash on hand and demand deposits. Cash equivalents are short-term investments of which the due dates cannot exceed 3 months from the dates of the investments and the convertibility into cash is easy, and which do not have a lot of risks in the conversion into cash as of the balance sheet date.

4. Financial investments

Investments in subsidiaries

Subsidiary is an entity that is controlled by the Company. Control is the Company's power to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities.

Initial recognition

Investments in associates are initially recognized at costs, including the cost of purchase or capital contributions plus other directly attributable transaction cost. In case of investment in non-monetary assets, the costs of the investment are recognized at the fair value of non-monetary assets at the arising time.

Dividends and profit of the periods prior to the purchase of investments are recorded as a decrease in value of such investments. Dividends and profit of the periods after the purchase of investments are recorded into the Company's revenues.

Provisions for impairment of investments in subsidiaries

Provisions for impairment of investments in subsidiaries is made when the subsidiaries suffer from losses at the rate equal to the difference between the actual capital invested by investors in subsidiaries and the actual owner's equity multiplying (x) by the Company's rate of capital contribution over the total actual capital invested by investors in subsidiaries. If the subsidiaries are consolidated into Consolidated Financial Statements, the basis for impairment provisions is the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Increases/ (decreases) in the provisions for impairment of investments in subsidiaries as of the balance sheet date are recorded into "Financial expenses".

5. Accounts receivable

Receivables are recognized at the carrying amounts less allowances for doubtful debts.

The classification of receivables as trade receivables and other receivables is made according to the following principles:

- Trade receivables reflect receivables concerning the commercial nature arising from purchase and sale transactions between the Company and customers who are independent to the Company, inclusive of receivables for the exports entrusted to other entities.
- Other receivables reflect receivables not concerning the commercial nature and irrelevant to purchase and sale transactions.

Allowance is made for each doubtful debt on the basis of the ages of debts after offsetting against liabilities (if any) or estimated loss as follows:

- As for overdue debts:
 - 30% of the value for receivables overdue from more than 6 months to less than 1 year.
 - 50% of the value for overdue receivables from 1 year to less than 2 years.
 - 70% of the value for overdue receivables from 2 years to less than 3 years.
 - 100% of the value for overdue receivables from 3 years or more.
- As for doubtful debts: Allowance is made on the basis of the estimated loss.

Increases/(decreases) in the obligatory allowance for doubtful debts as of the balance sheet date are recorded into general and administration expenses.

6. Inventories

Inventories are recognized at the lower of cost or net realizable value.

Cost of inventories is determined as follows:

- For materials and merchandise: Costs comprise costs of purchases and other directly relevant expenses incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and conditions.
- Work-in-process cost: includes only the costs of primary materials, secondary materials, and supplies.
- For finished goods: Costs comprise costs of materials, direct labor and directly relevant general manufacturing expenses allocated on the basis of normal operations.

Stock-out costs are determined in accordance with the weighted average method and recorded in line with the perpetual method.

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price of inventories in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

The allowance for devaluation of inventories is recognized for each type of inventories when their costs are higher than their net realizable values.

7. Prepaid expenses

Prepaid expenses comprise actual expenses arising and relevant to financial performance in several financial years. Prepaid expenses of the Company include value of business advantage, expenses for renting space and tools. These expenses are allocated during the prepaid period or period that corresponds to the economic benefits made from these costs.

Business advantage

KHANH HOA SANEST SOFT DRINK JOINT STOCK COMPANY

Address: National Road No.1, Nam Cam Ranh Commune, Khanh Hoa Province, Vietnam

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Notes to the Financial Statements (cont.)

Business advantage is recognized based on the data in the Minutes determining the enterprise value as of 30 June 2016. The business advantage is amortized over a period not exceeding 10 years from the date the Company operates as a joint stock company.

Expenses for renting space

Expenses for renting space is allocated into expenses in accordance with the straight-line method over the lease term.

Tools

Expenses of tools being put into use are allocated into expenses in accordance with the straight-line method for the maximum period of 36 months.

8. Operating leased assets

A lease is classified as an operating lease if it transfers substantially all the risks and rewards incident to ownership belonging to the lessor. The lease expenses are allocated in the Company's operation costs in accordance with the straight-line method over the lease term and are not depend on the method of lease payment.

9. Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets are determined by their historical costs less accumulated depreciation. Historical costs of tangible fixed assets include all the expenses paid by the Company to bring the asset to its working condition for its intended use. Other expenses arising subsequent to initial recognition are included into historical costs of fixed assets only if it can be clearly demonstrated that the expenditure has resulted in future economic benefits expected to be obtained from the use of these assets. Those which do not meet the above conditions will be recorded into operation costs during the period.

When a tangible fixed asset is sold or disposed of, its historical cost and accumulated depreciation are written off, and any gain or loss arising from the disposal is recognized in income or expenses for the period.

Tangible fixed assets are depreciated using the straight-line method based on their estimated useful lives. The number of years of depreciation for various types of tangible fixed assets is as follows:

Type of fixed assets	Number of years
Buildings and structures	05 - 25
Machinery and equipment	04 - 12
Vehicles	06 - 10
Management equipment and tools	05
Other fixed assets	05

10. Intangible fixed assets

Intangible fixed assets are stated at initial cost less accumulated depreciation.

The initial cost of intangible fixed assets includes all costs incurred by the Company to acquire the fixed assets up to the point when they are ready for use. Subsequent costs relevant to intangible fixed assets are recognized as operation costs during the period in which they are incurred, unless such costs are directly attributable to a specific intangible asset and increase the future economic benefits expected to be derived from that asset.

Address: National Road No.1, Nam Cam Ranh Commune, Khanh Hoa Province, Vietnam

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Notes to the Financial Statements (cont.)

When an intangible fixed asset is sold or disposed of, its initial cost and accumulated amortization are written off, and any gain or loss arising from the disposal is recognized in income or expenses for the period.

The Company's intangible fixed assets are computer software programs.

Costs related to computer software are not capitalized as an integral part of related hardware. The initial cost of computer software is the total costs incurred by the Company up to the point at which the software is put into use. Computer software is depreciated in accordance with the straight-line method over 05 years.

11. Construction-in-progress

Construction-in-progress reflects the expenses (including relevant interest expenses following the accounting policies of the Company) directly attributable to assets under construction, machinery and equipment under installation for purposes of production, leasing and management as well as the expenses of fixed asset repairs in progress. These assets are recorded at historical costs and not depreciated.

12. Contractual arrangement

Jointly controlled assets

The Company recognizes contractual arrangements on the Financial Statements in the form of Jointly controlled assets as follows:

- the Company's share of any liabilities incurred jointly with the other venturers in relation to the joint venture.
- Income from the sale or use of the share of products from the joint venture along with the share of expenses incurred from the joint venture's activities.
- any expenses that the Company has incurred in respect of its interest in the joint venture.

Fixed assets and investment property contributed into the contractual arrangement without transferring the ownership into the joint ownership of the venturers are not recognized as a decrease in assets. In case the Company received the assets contributed into the joint venture, these assets shall be recognized as assets kept on other's behalf instead of an increase in asset and owner's equity.

13. Payables and accrued expenses

Payables and accrued expenses are recorded for the amounts payable in the future associated with the merchandise and services received. Accrued expenses are recorded based on reasonable estimates for the amounts payable.

The classification of payables as trade payables, accrued expenses and other payables is made on the basis of following principles:

- Trade payables reflect payables of commercial nature arising from the purchase of goods, services, or assets, of which the seller is an independent entity with the Company, including payables for import through entrustment.
- Accrued expenses reflect expenses for goods, services received from suppliers or supplied to customers but have not been paid, invoiced or lack of accounting records and supporting documents; pay on leave payable to employees; and accrual of operation expenses.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

- Other payables reflect payables of non-commercial nature and irrelevant to purchase, sales of goods or provisions of services.

Payables and accrued expenses are classified as current and non-current on the Balance Sheet based on the remaining term at the end of the accounting period.

14. Owner's equity

Owner's capital

The owner's capital is recorded according to the actual amounts invested by the shareholders.

15. Profit distribution

Profit after tax is distributed to shareholders after appropriations have been made for funds in accordance with the Company's Charter as well as legal regulations, and after approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

The distribution of profits to the shareholders is made with consideration toward non-cash items in the retained earnings that may affect cash flows and payment of dividends such as profit due to revaluation of assets contributed as investment capital, profit due to revaluation of monetary items, financial instruments and other non-cash items.

Dividends are recognized as liabilities when approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders and when the Company issues a dividend notice.

16. Recognition of revenue and income

Revenue from sales of goods and finished goods

Revenue from sales of merchandise, finished goods shall be recognized when all of the following conditions are satisfied:

- The Company transfers most of the risks and benefits incident to the ownership of merchandise or products to customers.
- The Company no longer retains management rights over the merchandise or products as the owner of the merchandise or products, or control over the merchandise or products.
- When the contracts stipulate that buyers have the right to return merchandise, products purchased under specific conditions, the amount of revenue can be measured reliably. The amount of revenue is recorded only when those specific conditions are no longer present and buyers do not have the right to return merchandise, products (except in the case where such returns are in exchange for other goods or services).
- The Company received or shall probably receive the economic benefits associated with sale transactions.
- The cost incurred or to be incurred in respect of the sale transaction can be measured reliably.

Interest

Interest is recorded, based on the term and the actual interest rate applied in each particular period.

Distributable profits

Profit sharing is recognized when the Company is entitled to receive profits from its capital contribution.

17. Revenue deductions

Revenue deductions include trade discounts, sales allowances, sales returns incurred in the same period of providing goods, merchandise, services, in which revenues are derecognized.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the fourth quarter of the fiscal year ending 31 December 2025

In case of goods, merchandises, services provided in the previous years but trade discounts, sales allowances, sales returns incurred in the current period, revenue deductions shall be recorded as follows:

- If sales allowances, trade discounts, sales returns incur prior to the release of the Financial Statements, such revenue deductions are recognized in the Financial Statements of the current period.
- If sales allowances, trade discounts, sales returns incur after the release of the Financial Statements, such revenue deductions are recognized in the Financial Statements of the following period.

18. Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs are interest and other costs that the Company directly incurs in connection with the borrowing.

Borrowing costs are recorded as an expense when it is incurred. In case the borrowing costs are directly attributable to the construction or the production of an asset in progress, which takes a substantial period of time (over 12 months) to get ready for intended use or sales of the asset, these costs will be included in the cost of that asset. To the extent that the borrowings are especially for the purpose of construction of fixed assets and investment properties, the borrowing cost is eligible for capitalization even if construction period is under 12 months. Incomes arisen from provisional investments as loans are recognized as a decrease in the costs of relevant assets.

In the event that general borrowings are partly used for the acquisition, construction or production of an asset in progress, the costs eligible for capitalization will be determined by applying the capitalization rate to average accumulated expenditure on construction or production of that asset. The capitalization rate is computed at the weighted average interest rate of the borrowings not yet paid during the year, except for particular borrowings serving the purpose of obtaining a specific asset.

19. Expenses

Expenses are those that result in outflows of the Company's economic benefits and are recorded at the time of transactions or when incurrence of the transaction is reliable regardless of whether payment for expenses is made or not.

Expenses and their corresponding revenues are simultaneously recognized in accordance with matching principle. In the event that matching principle conflicts with prudence principle, expenses are recognized based on the nature and regulations of accounting standards in order to guarantee that transactions can be fairly and truly reflected.

20. Corporate income tax

Corporate income tax includes current income tax and deferred income tax.

Current income tax

Current income tax is the tax amount computed based on the assessable income. The assessable income is different from accounting profit due to the adjustments of temporary differences between tax and accounting figures, non-deductible expenses as well as those of non-taxable income and losses brought forward.

Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is the amount of corporate income tax payable or refundable due to temporary differences between book values of assets and liabilities serving the preparation of the financial statements and the values for tax purposes. Deferred income tax liabilities are recognized for all the temporary taxable differences. Deferred income tax assets are recorded only when there is an assurance on the availability of taxable income in the future against which the temporarily deductible differences can be used.

Carrying values of deferred corporate income tax assets are considered as of the balance sheet date and will be reduced to the rate that ensures enough assessable income against which the benefits from part of or all of the deferred income tax can be used. Deferred corporate income tax assets, which have not been recorded before, are considered as of the balance sheet date and are recorded when there is certainly enough assessable income to use these unrecognized deferred corporate income tax assets.

Deferred income tax assets and deferred income tax liabilities are determined at the estimated rate to be applied in the year when the assets are recovered or the liabilities are settled based on the effective tax rates as of the balance sheet date. Deferred income tax is recognized in the Income Statement. In the case that deferred income tax is related to the items of the owner's equity, corporate income tax will be included in the owner's equity.

Deferred income tax assets and deferred income tax liabilities are offset when:

- The Company has the legal right to offset current income tax assets against current income tax liabilities; and
- Deferred income tax assets and deferred income tax liabilities are relevant to corporate income tax which is under the management of one tax authority either:
 - Of the same subject to corporate income tax; or
 - The Company has intention to pay current income tax liabilities and current income tax assets on a net basis or recover tax assets and settle tax liabilities simultaneously in each future period to the extent that the majority of deferred income tax liabilities or deferred income tax assets are paid or recovered.

21. Related parties

A party is considered a related party of the Company in case that party is able to control the Company or to cause material effects on the financial decisions as well as the operations of the Company.

In considering the relationship between related parties, the substance of the relationship is emphasized over the legal form.

22. Segment reporting

A business segment is a distinguishable component that is engaged in manufacturing or providing products or services and that is subject to risks and returns that are different from those of other business segments.

A geographical segment is a distinguishable component of the Company that is engaged in manufacturing or providing products or services within a particular economic environment and that is subject to risks and returns that are different from those of components operating in other economic environments.

Segment information is prepared and presented in accordance with the accounting policies applied to the preparation and presentation of the Company's Financial Statements.
