3. Supervisory Activities of the Board of Directors over the Executive Management:

- The Board of Directors supervised the General Director and the executive management to ensure full compliance with applicable laws and regulations governing corporate management and the Company's business operations.

- Directed and supervised the execution of construction projects undertaken by the Company, ensuring that they were completed on schedule and met the quality requirements specified by the project owners.

- Supervised the management and utilization of the Company's assets, financial resources, and human resources; monitored the implementation of the Company's business and production plans, as well as the execution of the Board of Directors' resolutions, decisions, and internal management regulations by the General Director and the executive management.

- Exercised preventive supervision by issuing directives, resolutions, and decisions to instruct the General Director and the executive management to implement the Company's business and production plan in accordance with the resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders, while reviewing, supplementing, and improving the Company's internal management regulations to ensure their consistent and effective implementation.

- Ongoing supervision: The Board of Directors conducted ongoing supervision through the Chairman of the Board, who attended regular weekly and ad hoc meetings with the General Director and the executive management to review the implementation of the Company's business and production plan and overall business operations. The Board also inspected and supervised the organization and management of the General Director and the executive management at the Company's construction sites, and monitored their performance through periodic reports submitted in accordance with the Company's reporting regulations.

- Directed and supervised compliance with the State's regulations on employee policies and benefits, ensured appropriate working conditions, monitored the implementation of the Collective Labor Agreement, and oversaw the execution of other policies and benefits applicable to employees.

- Ex-post supervision: The Board of Directors monitored the performance of the General Director, the Company's functional departments, and the management of its branches through quarterly inspection and control activities carried out by the Company's Internal Control Board.

- The inspection and supervision conducted by the Board of Directors and the Chairman of the Board of Directors were carried out within their respective authorities and did not interfere with or overlap the Company's executive management. Through these inspection and supervision activities, the Board of Directors was able to promptly monitor the Company's operational performance and the implementation of its business and production plans, as well as those of its affiliated branches, at each stage. This enabled the Board to provide timely direction and take appropriate measures to address specific issues as they arose.
